Our Partnership with Wespath Institutional Investments

Investing with Wespath Institutional Investments (WII) through the Georgia United Methodist Foundation allows your organization to focus on its own good work, while reaching its financial objectives.

Not-for-Profit

WII is a subsidiary of Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), an agency of The United Methodist Church. 100% of its clients are not-for-profit, faith-based investors.

Longevity

Wespath brings more than 100 years of investment experience—tracing its roots back to 1908. A 21-strong team of investment industry veterans brings the strength of experience.

Scale

Wespath manages the largest reporting faith-based pension fund in the world. Together with its subsidiaries, including WII, Wespath manages over $27 billion² in assets.

Diversification

WII offers a series of funds designed to build well-diversified, global portfolios and provide access to world-class investment managers.

Alignment of Interests

WII is inherently free of many conflicts observed with other financial institutions.

Partnership

Our goal now and in the future is to support your mission and the continued mission of the UMC.

Impact

When you partner with us, you can join in being a global leader in sustainability. Integrating environmental, social, and governance issues into our investments is integral to our process.

Performance

Our priority is your financial future. Our disciplined investment approach seeks to deliver long-term, competitive performance.
